

BY-LAW NUMBER 01-2018

A by-law relating generally to the transaction of business relating to the VISUAL ARTS CENTRE OF CLARINGTON (previously known as The Visual Arts Centre of Newcastle).

BE IT ENACTED as a by-law of the VISUAL ARTS CENTRE OF CLARINGTON as follows:

REPEAL OF BYLAWS

All bylaws of the corporation heretofore enacted are hereby repealed.

HEAD OFFICE

1. The head office of the corporation shall be in the Municipality of Clarington in the Region of Durham in the Province of Ontario, and at such place therein as the Directors may from time to time determine.

SEAL

2. The corporate seal, an impression whereof is stamped in the margin hereof, shall be the corporate seal of the corporation.

PURPOSES

3. The Visual Arts Centre of Clarington's mandate is to promote the creation, display and appreciation of the visual arts in the Greater Toronto Area with special emphasis on Clarington and the Durham Region.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

4. The affairs of the corporation shall be controlled and directed by a Board of up to twelve qualified Directors, each of whom at the time of their election or within 10 days thereafter and throughout their term of office shall be a member of the corporation. A qualified Director is defined as an individual whom is at least 18 years of age, not be an undischarged bankrupt nor a mentally incompetent person, and be a resident of Ontario. A candidate for the board must not be related by either birth or marriage to any existing board member or employee. A qualified board member may not be an employee of the corporation, and may not have conflicting relationships with other competing organizations. The Board of Directors reserves the right to determine what is a competing organization to the Visual Arts Centre of Clarington. Lastly a qualified Director must pass board review or examination and be formally voted onto the board. Each Director shall be elected for a term of three (3) years, at the annual meeting of the corporation and shall hold office until his or her successor is elected or until such director resigns or is removed from their position as a director (refer to section 13 for more details). A Director whose term has expired shall be eligible for re-election for one additional term of three (3) years if otherwise qualified, after which additional term, the Director must cease to be a Director for at least one (1) year before being eligible for re-election. A Director who is absent without leave from three (3) regular board meetings shall be deemed to have tendered his or her resignation as a Director. The Board of Directors may accept the resignation and appoint any member of the corporation in his or her stead to serve as a Director until the next annual members meeting. (See section 6 with respect with the treatment of board vacancies)

5. The Board of Directors may at any time appoint a honorary Advisory Board at their discretion to advise the Board of Directors.

VACANCIES, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

6. Vacancies on the Board of Directors, however caused, may so long as a quorum of Directors remain in office, be filled by the Directors from among the qualified members of the corporation, if they shall see fit to do so, otherwise such vacancy shall be filled at the next annual meeting of the members at which the Directors for the ensuing year are elected, but if there is not a quorum of Directors, the remaining Directors shall forthwith call a meeting of the members to fill the vacancy.

QUORUM AND MEETINGS, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

7a. A quorum for the transaction of business at meetings of the Board shall be a simple majority of (50% plus 1) of the elected and current Directors of the board, except as otherwise required by law.

7b. The Board of Directors may hold its meetings at such place or places as it may from time to time determine. No formal notice of any such meeting shall be necessary if all the Directors are present, or if those absent have signified their consent to the meeting being held in their absence. Directors' meetings may be formally called by the President or Vice-President or by the Secretary on direction in writing by two Directors, or by the Secretary on direction of the President or Vice-President.

7c. Notice of such meeting shall either be delivered, telephoned or emailed to each Director not less than five days before the meeting is to take place. The statutory declaration of the Secretary or President that notice has been given pursuant to this by-law shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of giving such a notice.

7d. The Board may appoint a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings at an hour to be named and of such regular meeting no notice need be sent.

7e. A Directors' meeting may also be held, without notice, immediately following the annual members' meeting of the corporation.

7f. The Directors may consider or transact any business either special or general at any meeting of the board.

7g. Board meetings and the annual members meeting are to be chaired by the President, in his or her absence the Vice-President or by another Officer or Board member decided by a majority decision of the Board.

ERRORS IN NOTICE, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

8. No error or omission in giving such notice for a meeting of Directors shall invalidate such meeting or invalidate or make void any proceedings taken or had at such meeting and any Director may at any time waive notice of any such meeting and may ratify and approve of any or all proceedings taken or had thereat for the purpose of sending notice to any member, director, or officer for any meeting or otherwise the notice shall be sent to the contact information recorded on the books of the corporation. Subject to the requirement for a quorum (refer to Section 7)

VOTING, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

9a. Questions/Motions arising at any meeting of Directors shall be decided by a majority of votes. All votes at any such meeting shall be taken by written ballot and recorded if so demanded by any Director present, but if not demanded, a vote shall be taken in the usual way by assent or dissent.

9b. A declaration by the President that a resolution has been carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes shall be admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

POWERS

10. The Directors of the corporation may administer the affairs of the corporation in all things and make or cause to be made for the corporation, in its name, any type of contract deemed reasonable and suitable and would be considered normal business of the corporation which the corporation may lawfully enter into and, save as hereinafter provided, generally, may exercise all such powers and do all such other acts and things as the corporation is by its charter or otherwise authorized to exercise and do.

REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

11. The Directors shall receive no remuneration for acting as such.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

12. The members of the Board of Directors shall disclose personal or professional interests that are potentially at odds with the best interest of the corporation. Board members must withdraw from decisions that present a potential conflict or that would result in personal gain. (Such examples of personal gain would be: decisions that would beneficially impact a direct family member, friend, or associate of a board member and/or may have a direct/indirect impact on a business interest of such board member and for clarity wherein there may be a financial gain in any area for such director.) When a board member withdraws themselves from a decision that presents a potential conflict of interest this board members withdrawal from voting on a particular decision must be recorded in the meeting minutes. A Director who fails to disclose a potential conflict can be removed from the Board of Directors as per section 13.

REMOVAL OF BOARD MEMBERS

13. Member(s) of the Board of Directors, including Officers may be removed from the board if it is deemed by a two-thirds 2/3rds majority vote, at a Board of Directors meeting called for this purpose, that it is in the best interest of the corporation to terminate their participation on the board. (See Removal of Board Member Policy).

OFFICERS OF THE CORPORATION

14. The Officers of the corporation shall include a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer each of whom will hold office for a one year term. The officers of the corporation will be elected by the Directors from among their number whenever a vacancy occurs. In extenuating circumstances one person may hold 2 of the executive board positions excluding that of the office of President. In default of election the incumbent shall hold office until his or her successor is elected.

PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

15 Limitation of Liability: Except as otherwise provided in the Corporations Act, as amended from time to time, no Director or officer for the first time being of the Corporation shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Director or officer or employee or for joining in any receipt or act of conformity or for any loss, damage or expense happening to the Corporation through the insufficiency of deficiency of title to any property acquired by the Corporation for or on behalf of the Corporation or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the monies of or belonging to the Corporation shall be invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious acts of any person with whom any of the monies, securities or effects of the Corporation shall be deposited or for any on his or her part or for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen in the execution of the duties of her or his office or in relation thereto; provided that nothing herein shall relieve any director or officer from the duty to act in accordance with the Corporations Act, as amended from time to time and regulations or from liability for any breach thereof.

INSURANCE

16. The Directors shall be responsible for ensuring that the following coverages are in place and premiums paid which are sufficient to protect the Corporation its employees, Officers and Directors. Such coverages are: property and liability coverage and coverage for Directors and Officers liability; and other types of insurance as they may decide from time to time.

DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT

17. The President, the Secretary (refer to section 21), and the Governance committee (refer to section 44) is responsible for ensuring that the Board of Directors and its members are aware of and fulfill their governance responsibilities, comply with applicable laws and bylaws, conduct Board business effectively and efficiently and that the Board is accountable for their performance.
